About

Adrian Videla has spent more than a decade captivating audiences in the world of variety performance as a magician and fire artist. That early passion for live spectacle soon led him toward theatre and film. After performing in several plays-and writing and directing his own work-he enrolled in the Acting Programme at Actors Studio Stockholm to further refine his craft.

Today, Adrian works actively across stage, film, television, and commercial productions. With his unique background in variety entertainment, he brings an uncommon intensity, focus, and presence that set him apart as an actor.
