About

Ali Karim is a Swedish actor. His interest in acting began through a school casting opportunity, which opened the door to a creative world he quickly became passionate about. Since then, he has focused on developing his craft and pursuing opportunities within television and screen acting.

Driven by curiosity, ambition, and a strong desire to grow, Ali approaches each project as a new challenge and learning experience. As a newly established actor, he is building experience in television productions while continuing to develop his artistic range and on-screen presence.
