About

Estelle Löfgren Hadir is a Swedish actress who showed talent in acting and dancing from a young age. At just six years old, she landed her first leading role, standing out among many other children. She joined a film crew as the only child during an intense production period, learning early to memorise scripts and handle long filming days with patience and professionalism.

Since then, Estelle has appeared in several TV productions and short films, as well as a feature film. She is humble, attentive, and highly adaptable, with a strong presence both on stage and in front of the camera. A skilled dancer and recent graduate of Lund Dance and Musical High School, she aspires to continue working creatively in dance, theatre, and film.
