About

Henrik Hjelt is a Swedish actor and comedian. He has worked extensively across television, film, stage and voice acting since the 1990s, recognised for his sharp comedic timing and versatility. A familiar face on Swedish TV, he has been a leading performer on long-running comedy shows such as 'Parlamentet' and 'Playa del Sol'.

Alongside his screen career, Hjelt has toured Sweden with several acclaimed stand-up and comedy productions, including 'Nu blire åka av' and 'Humorator'. He is also a skilled voice actor, lending his voice to animated films and television projects such as 'Spirited Away' and 'Skattkammarplaneten'. Before pursuing acting full-time, he earned a law degree from Uppsala University and served as a Reserve Officer in the Swedish Royal Marines.
